

The 12th Association of Pacific Rim Universities Doctoral Students Conference

● Update and Analysis on Abstracts Submission

We are honored to receive many abstracts from all over the world. Until the deadline for the second round of online abstract submission (March 7, 2011), we have received 362 abstracts. The 12th APRU DSC includes the following 6 sub-themes.

1. Promoting Human Development through Inclusive Growth
2. Innovation of Science and Technology
3. Globalization and International Cooperation
4. Maintaining Sustainable Development through Education, Culture and Art
5. Life Sciences and Health
6. Youth's Responsibilities and Leadership

For each sub-theme, we analyze the distribution of abstracts in different subthemes in Figure 1.

Sub-theme distribution

Figure 1 Sub-theme distribution of number of abstracts

Subject distributions of the first four sub-themes are shown in the following figures. Due to the special case of subtheme 5 and 6, which are focused in a specific area we did not conduct branch analysis upon them,

Promoting Human Development through Inclusive Growth

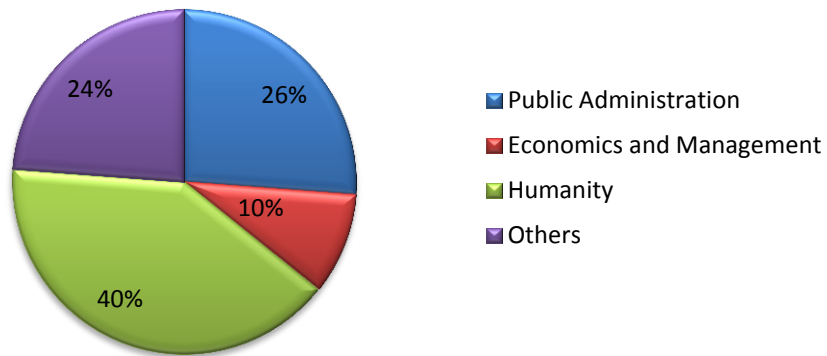

Figure 2 Subject distribution of sub-theme 1

Innovation of Science and Technology

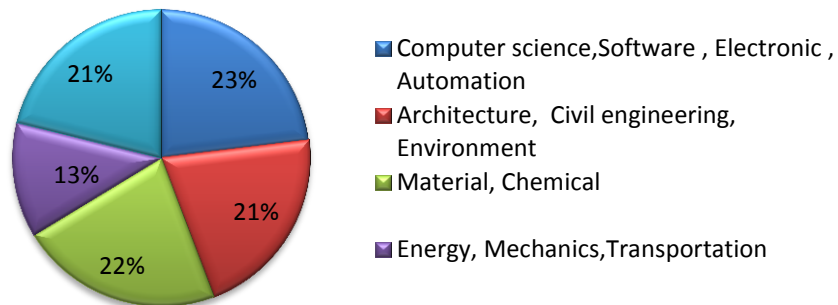

Figure 3 Subject distribution of sub-theme 2

Globalization and International Cooperation

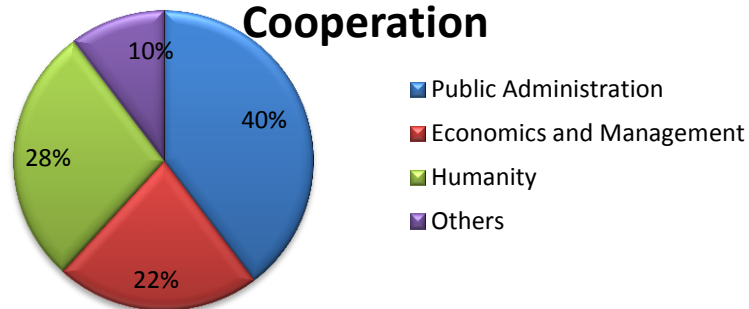

Figure 4 Subject distribution of sub-theme 3

Maintaining Sustainable Development through Education, Culture and Art

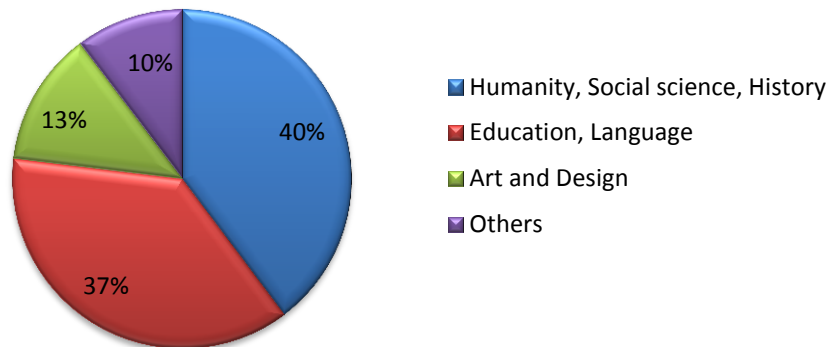

Figure 5 Subject distribution of sub-theme 4

Further information is available upon request.

● News and Upcoming Events

April 23th, 2011: We will send out acceptance notification.

April 23th, 2011: World University Presidents Summit and APRU Presidents Annual Conference will be held in Main Building, Tsinghua University. Click here for more.

Any comments, suggestions and contributions to newsletter are welcome. Please send your opinions to apru@mail.tsinghua.edu.cn

12th APRU DSC Organizing Committee
Tsinghua University